COMPANY UPDATE

Rating: BUY

Ticker: JAKK

Price: $22.97
(intraday)

Target: $28.00
(from $25)

Q1 EPS upside: JAKKS recently (on April 27) reported its fiscal Q1 2023 (ending March) results. Revenue was $108 million (-11% y-o-y), compared with our estimate of $122 million and consensus $100 million. Pro forma EPS was $(0.40), compared with our estimates of $(1.66) and consensus of $(0.94). There was no Q1 guidance.

Continued solid execution: JAKKS benefited from continued solid results from the majority of its product lines. Disney Encanto, Sonic, Disney Princess, and Nintendo continued to sell well (similar to 2022). Although sales were -11% (y-o-y), this was relatively solid given the tough comps (+44% y-o-y) in Q1 2022.

Strong International: International was strong in Q1 with sales +12% (y-o-y).

Strong Disguise in 2023/2022: In 2022, JAKKS's costume business (Disguise) revenue was $149 million (+38% y-o-y), the highest revenue since Disguise joined JAKKS in 2008. Even with the tough comps, Disguise sales were only -2% in Q1.

And margin improved: The company had stronger margins in Q1 (29% vs. 25% y-o-y) as supply issues and costs improved (particularly for freight transportation).

Reasonable inventory: The company's Q1 inventory was -25% versus last year (at $64 million, from $81 million in Q4 and $85 million in Q1 2022) vs. a sales decrease of -11%. We believe inventory levels are reasonable.

No 2023 guidance: The company did not provide any forward guidance.

Lowering estimates: We are lowering our 2023 estimates for revenue to $706 million, from $804 million, and for EPS to $3.57 from $4.47. We are lowering our 2024 estimates for revenue to $755 million, from $812 million, and for EPS to $4.21 from $5.00.

Toy industry growth flat in 2022: NPD reported that U.S. sales of toys was about flat in 2022 (-0.2%) after rising +13% in 2021, and +16% in 2020. The toy industry's boom during the pandemic is over and now has challenges from weaker macro economic factors and high inflation.

Strong 2022 execution: 2022 revenue were very strong at +28% (y-o-y) and was on top of the +20% growth in 2021 (reversing declining revenues over the past several years) and helps alleviate investors' concerns that the negative momentum (from the prior three year's bad misses and significantly lowered guidance) is over.

Should drive 2023: We believe the strong 2022 results should drive momentum in 2023. Most of 2022's top sellers should sell well in 2023.

Risk/reward attractive: Maintaining our BUY rating, but raising our 12-month price target to $28 from $25, which reflects a P/E multiple of ~5.5x our 2024 EPS estimate of $5.00. This is below the peer group median for toy companies to reflect higher execution risks but also represents significant upside from the current share price.
