UPDATE

Myomo, Inc.

Q3 about inline. We believe continued strong revenue growth over the next year to be positive for stock. Lowering P/T to $9.

Q3 about inline: Myomo recently (on November 10) reported its Q3 2022 (ending September) results. Revenue was $4.0 million (-9% y-o-y), compared with our and consensus estimates of $3.9 - 4.0 million. EPS was $(0.40), compared with our estimates of $(0.38) and consensus of $(0.43). There was no Q3 guidance, but it did expect higher sequential Q3 revenue but to be lower y-o-y.

Solid sales and backlog: Myomo sold 87 units in Q3 (vs. 80 units in Q2, 71 in Q1 2022 and 102 in Q3 2021). The reimbursement pipeline was 1,112 units at Q3, up from 1,049 units at Q2. Backlog (insurance authorized) was 184, up from 163 at Q2. While revenues were lower y-o-y, the pipeline adds and backlog are all higher y-o-y boding well for growth in 2023.

Q4 guidance: The company declined to provide specific Q4 guidance, but did expect "modest" sequential revenue growth from Q3.

Strong 2023 expected: Myomo's current pipeline is 1,112 (vs. 1,049 in Q2 2022), with pipeline adds in Q3 strong at 419 (vs. 420 in Q2 2022). The large pipeline should lead to strong revenues over the next year.

Lowering estimates: We are lowering our 2022 estimates for revenue to $15.6 million, from $17.3 million, and for EPS to $(1.65) from $(1.36). Our Q4 and 2022 estimates do not include any additional JV revenue due to its variability in timing of receipt.

Recent growth solid: We expect the company's recent solid revenue growth (was +17% YTD 2022, +83% (y-o-y) in 2021, and +98% in 2020) to continue over the near-term. With the increased focus on direct billing units (79% of Q3 revenue and ~80% of the pipeline) and growing, Myomo's revenue and gross margins should continue to improve significantly.

Focused on MyoPro commercialization: Myomo's main product, the MyoPro custom fabricated myoelectric upper limb orthosis, is like an exoskeleton for the upper body. Myomo estimates that the addressable U.S. market for its products is $10 billion.

Key catalysts expected in 2022/23: Myomo's key catalysts expected in 2022/23 include continued momentum in U.S. commercialization (particularly improved reimbursement and starting Medicare coverage), commercialization in Europe and international (which is only ~10% of revenues), a new MyoPro pediatric product, and the recently launched MyoPro 2+ (offering lighter weight, easier donning, greater comfort, and improved grasp functionality over the MyoPro 2).

China JV: In January 2021, Myomo entered into a JV with Beijing Ryzur Medical Investment Co. to manufacture and sell MyoPro for the Chinese market. The JV made an upfront license fee of $1.0 million to Myomo in Q1 and should make another $1.7 million payment in 2022/23. After this payment, the JV will begin operations.

Balance sheet: The company had $7 million in cash and no debt at the end of Q3. The company should have enough cash until mid-2023.

Positive high risks versus rewards: Overall, concerns outweighed by growth prospects and valuation. We believe the "billion dollars market potentials presents a high reward for the risks.

Current valuation attractive: Maintaining our BUY rating, but lowering our 12month price target to $9 from $10. This is based on a NPV analysis, representing significant upside from the current share price.

Business Outlook

"We expect to be able to report modest sequential product revenue growth in the fourth quarter," said Gudonis. "While growing the pipeline will be seasonally challenging in the fourth quarter due to competition from holiday and election advertising, we expect to enter 2023 with a much larger pipeline than we entered 2022, positioning the Company for stronger product revenue growth in 2023."

HOLD: We expect the stock to provide a total return of negative 15% to positive 15% within a 12-month period.

SELL: We expect the stock to have a negative total return of more than 15% within a 12-month period.

Ascendiant Capital Markets, LLC Rating System

Prior to January 31, 2014, ASCM used the following rating system:

Strong Buy: We expect the stock to provide a total return of 30% or more within a 12-month period.

Buy: We expect the stock to provide a total return of between 10% and 30% within a 12-month period.

Neutral: We expect the stock to provide a total return of between minus 10% and plus 10% within a 12-month period.

Sell: We expect the stock to provide a total return of minus 10% or worse within a 12-month period.

Speculative Buy: This rating is reserved for companies we believe have tremendous potential, but whose stocks are illiquid or whose equity market capitalizations are very small, often in the definition of a nano cap (below $50 million in market cap). In general, for stocks ranked in this category, we expect the stock to provide a total return of 50% or more within a 12-month period. However, because of the illiquid nature of the stock's trading and/or the nano cap nature of the investment, we caution that these investments may not be suitable for all parties.

Total return is defined as price appreciation plus dividend yield.
