Rating: BUY

Ticker: JAKK

Price: $18.49 (intraday)

Target: $30.00 (from $33)

Large Q3 upside: JAKKS recently (on October 27) reported its fiscal Q3 2022 (ending September) results. Revenue was $323 million (+36% y-o-y), compared with our estimate of $246 million and consensus $261 million. Pro forma EPS was $3.80, compared with our estimates of $2.81 and consensus of $2.95. There was no Q3 guidance.

Strong toy industry demand: JAKKS benefited from broad growth across a wide range of brands and categories, in the U.S. and international. JAKKS's top three customers in the U.S. had point of sale (POS) growth in the high teens in Q3.

Strong Disguise YTD: YTD, JAKKS's costume business (Disguise) revenue was $135 million (+36% y-o-y), the highest YTD revenue since Disguise joined JAKKS in 2008.

But supply chain issues continue to weigh: The company had weaker margins in Q3 as supply issues added significant costs. The company had elevated freight costs and extended timelines to deliver inventory into U.S. and European warehouses. The company did note that freight costs and supply chain issues have improved significantly recently.

Profitability improved: Cost controls, inventory management, and very large operating leverage were able to offset the higher supply chain costs to gross margins (28.5% vs 31.6% y-o-y). This resulted in significantly higher operating income ($54 million versus $37 million y-o-y).

Building inventory: Q3 inventory was +22% versus last year (at $109 million) vs. a sales increase of 36%. We believe the large inventory levels increases are reasonable to manage the current supply chain issues (delays, inflation, and higher freight costs) and higher revenue levels.

+20% 2022 revenue guidance: The company provided initial 2022 revenue guidance to be "around" +20% from 2021 (equating to ~$745 million). We do note that the company is guiding for ~-57% revenue declines (y-o-y) in Q4 due to tough comps in Q4 2021 along with sales pulled forward YTD 2022 and retailers taking a more conservative sales outlook due to weakening macro and consumer issues.

Raising estimates significantly: We are raising our 2022 estimates for revenue to $763 million, from $738 million, and for EPS to $4.75 from $4.22.

Toy industry growth helping JAKKS: NPD reported that U.S. sales of toys rose +13% in 2021 (+16% in 2020). The toy industry benefited from SIP and kids staying home which has continued even as the pandemic is about over.

Strong 2022 execution so far: Q3 revenue were very strong (reversing declining revenues over the past several years) and helps alleviate investors' concerns that the negative momentum (from the prior three year's bad misses and significantly lowered guidance) is over. 2020 revenue were -14%, but rebounded to +20% in 2021, and is +53% YTD.

Should drive 2022: We believe the strong Q3, Q2, and Q1 results and higher inventory levels should drive momentum through 2022.

Risk/reward attractive: Maintaining our BUY rating, but lowering our 12-month price target to $30 from $33, which reflects a P/E multiple of ~6x our 2023 EPS estimate of $4.95. This is below the peer group median for toy companies to reflect higher execution risks but also represents significant upside from the current share price.

This report is based on current public information that we consider reliable, but we do not represent it is accurate or complete, and it should not be relied on as such. This report contains information from various sources, including United States government publications, The Wall Street Journal and other periodicals, Yahoo! ### Risks & Considerations

Risks to attainment of our share price target include changes to product release timing, the effects of competition, changes in macroeconomic factors, and changes in consumer demand for toys.

Ascendiant Capital Markets, LLC Rating System

BUY: We expect the stock to provide a total return of 15% or more within a 12-month period.

HOLD: We expect the stock to provide a total return of negative 15% to positive 15% within a 12-month period.

SELL: We expect the stock to have a negative total return of more than 15% within a 12-month period.

Total return is defined as price appreciation plus dividend yield.

Ascendiant Capital Markets, LLC Rating System

Prior to January 31, 2014, ASCM used the following rating system:

Strong Buy: We expect the stock to provide a total return of 30% or more within a 12-month period.

Buy: We expect the stock to provide a total return of between 10% and 30% within a 12-month period.

Neutral: We expect the stock to provide a total return of between minus 10% and plus 10% within a 12-month period.

Sell: We expect the stock to provide a total return of minus 10% or worse within a 12-month period.

Speculative Buy: This rating is reserved for companies we believe have tremendous potential, but whose stocks are illiquid or whose equity market capitalizations are very small, often in the definition of a nano cap (below $50 million in market cap). In general, for stocks ranked in this category, we expect the stock to provide a total return of 50% or more within a 12-month period. However, because of the illiquid nature of the stock's trading and/or the nano cap nature of the investment, we caution that these investments may not be suitable for all parties.

Total return is defined as price appreciation plus dividend yield.
